When the signatory Employer performs a job within the jurisdiction of a union affiliated with the IUPAT other than the Union signatory hereto, and the by-laws of that other union contain no provision for administrative dues or business agent “assessment”, the Employer shall continue to be bound by Section 1. If the by-laws of the other union provide for administrative dues or business agent assessment at a lower percentage than four and one-half percent (4.5%) of the Employee’s gross wages, the Employer shall remit the balance to the signatory Union.

In addition to all other sums due them, the Employees shall be paid not less than a full day's wages for that day.
(c) At the time of paying wages, the Employer shall give to each Employee a written statement showing the amount of each and every deduction made from the wages. The statement shall also show the Employee’s name and his/her Social Security number.

These books shall consist of at least a check book, payroll book, cash book and accounts payable and accounts receivable ledger. Such books, and all other employment records of the Employer, shall be made available to the auditor of the Drywall Tapers’ Insurance Fund or Annuity Fund or any other Fund established by this Agreement or the Joint Board on the written demand of either. In the event that an Employer shall refuse or fail to make these records available to said auditor upon fifteen (15) day’s written demand of such Fund or the Joint Board, and the auditor so certified to the Joint Board, then the entire amount of the Employer’s escrow deposit or bond or other security posted with the Joint Board as set forth in sub-division (f) of this Section, shall forthwith become due and payable, and the Joint Board shall apply and pay the same to the Drywall Tapers Insurance Fund to the credit of the Employer. Failure to keep any of the records required in this sub-section shall constitute a violation of this Agreement.

Whenever an audit is required, the Employer shall pay to the Joint Board an audit fee of $300.00 for the auditor’s services if books are not made available.

(f) Each Employer, within thirty (30) days after the signing of this Agreement and from time to time thereafter as may be necessary under the terms hereof, shall provide security to the Joint Board as authorized collection agent for the faithful performance by him/her of the requirements under this Agreement for the payment of wages, insurance, welfare, pension and vacation benefits, annuity contributions and penalties of liquidated damages assessed by the Joint Board. In such case, such additional security shall be held separately in escrow by the Joint Board as security for the good and faithful performance by the Employer of the terms of this Agreement. Such additional security or any unexpended portion thereof shall be returned to the Employer at the expiration of this Agreement. The Joint Board is hereby authorized for each such Employer’s account to pay out of his/her security account any sum found by said Board to be due hereunder from the Employer for unpaid wages, contributions to the Drywall Tapers Insurance Fund, or any other contractual monetary obligation under this Agreement. Within twenty-four (24) hours after notice to any such Employer of such a finding and payment of the Joint Board out of that Employer’s security account, the Employer shall replenish and replace in continuing escrow with the Joint Board the exact amount withdrawn and disbursed on his/her account from his/her security account.

(k) The Union shall not enter into a contract with any Employer who is indebted under the terms of this Agreement or any prior Trade Agreement by reason of his/her non-payment of wages, wage benefits, annuities, pensions or penalties or liquidated damages assessed by the Joint Board, whether such Employer proposes the making of such contract under his/her own name or under the name of any firm or corporation in which he is a principal or has substantial interest.

The Foreperson shall be required at the Employer’s sole discretion to work on the job.
When supervisory conditions require the Foreperson to work more than seven (7) hours he may do so without an overtime permit but he shall be compensated for such work on the basis of the rate paid during the seven (7) hours of regular work.

On large jobs requiring assistant Forepersons, these assistant Forepersons shall be paid in the same manner.

(b) Unqualified or unproductive Job Stewards may be removed, subject to review by the Joint Trade Committee, which shall convene a hearing within 24 hours.

(gg) In the event that a Job Steward has been removed from a job, the placed Job Steward will be of the same status (e.g., journeyperson, apprentice) as the Job Steward being removed.

(iii) In the event that there is an individual stamp or wage shortage for an Employee working on a job, the Union will notify the Employer in writing and demand that the Employee be made whole. The Employer will then have forty-eight (48) hours from verified receipt of the Union's written demand to make the Employee whole. If the Employer fails to make the Employee whole within forty-eight (48) hours, the Union may remedy the violation in accordance with subsections (a) and (b) above.

SECTION 5. The Stewards’ Committee shall hear Employer complaints against Stewards on charges of misconduct or Union complaints of abuse of Stewards’ rights and shall meet within 48 hours. The Steward may not be suspended pending the disposition of charges if such failure is due to the absence of the Employer’s representatives. He may be so suspended, however, if the Committee’s failure to meet is due to the absence of the Union’s representatives. A quorum of the Committee shall consist of one representative from each side and its finding shall be decided by unit vote.

SECTION 6. DEADLOCK. In the event the Stewards’ Committee deadlocks or otherwise fails to decide any complaint, either party may, within thirty days, refer the complaint to the Joint Trade Board for final and binding decision, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board.
SECTION 7. The parties agree to establish a joint labor-management committee, the purpose of which is to identify violations of this Trade Agreement by, including but not limited to, reviewing Shop Steward reports and remittance reports. The committee will meet on a regular basis. The committee will hire one full-time staff person whose function will be, among other responsibilities to be determined by the committee, to monitor Shop Steward reports and remittance reports and report to the committee any potential violations of the Trade Agreement for further action by the committee, and to make site visits as necessary to ascertain whether the trade Agreement is being violated.

If the Employer violates this provision, the Employer will be written up on charges and a Steward will be appointed from the Union Hall. If additional workers are added, then the third taper on the project will be a certified Steward.

SECTION 11. Shop Stewards will be placed January 1st of every calendar year and will remain in the shop for one calendar year.

ART. XI. SECTION I. REGISTRATION OF JOBS. Every Employer shall, twenty-four (24) hours or more before the commencement of any job or operation, file with the Joint Board a written statement of the exact location and nature thereof, including the address, the floor or area, proposed Employees’ names, the name of the contractor’s client, the type of work required, and the type of construction. In the event that work of the said job is done by any other Employer, such other Employer shall within twenty-four (24) hours or more before commencing work file with the Joint Board a written statement of the work to be performed by the Employer. The statement may be filed with the Joint Board by fax or email.

In the event of any Employer’s failure to register as required by this section, the Union may order that Employer’s Journeypersons and Apprentices to cease work.

Every Employer shall report to the Joint Board within twenty-four (24) hours the loss of any job.

Every Employer shall report to the Union and Associations within twenty-four (24) hours the stoppage or suspension of any job for failure of payment. All job registrations shall be given a log number and the Employer shall be notified of the same.
SECTION 2.

(b) In the event that any job has not begun within thirty (30) days after registration thereof, the Employer shall re-register the job before opening the same and notify the Job Steward. If the Employer fails to re-register, the Job Steward shall receive full pay for the time lost.

(c) In the event that a job is stopped, or Employees are ordered to cease work as provided in this Article, all Employees shall receive full pay for the time lost.

(d) In the event of any violation of this section, the Joint Board shall have authority to levy whatever fines it may deem necessary and determine the working conditions that shall be observed on the job.

ART. XII BUSINESS MANAGER AND ORGANIZERS. The Union Business Manager and Organizers may visit all jobs and shops for the purpose of ascertaining whether the ‘provisions of the Agreement are being carried out.

ART. XIII SECTION 1. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE. It is agreed that every effort shall be made to settle Employee grievances promptly and amicably through the following procedures of grievance adjustment:

(a) An Employee’s grievance shall first be presented by his/her Steward to the Employee’s Foreperson. If no satisfaction is reached, the matter shall be referred to:

(b) The Union, which shall review the grievance with the Employer’s supervisor or other representative designated by the Employer. If no satisfactory settlement is reached in this step of the grievance procedure, the matter shall then be reduced to writing and referred to:

(c) A Joint Committee, comprised of a representative designated by the Associations and the Business Manager of the Union or representatives respectively designated by each of them. The Joint Committee shall adjust or dispose of the grievance or complaint within forty-eight (48) hours after its receipt or, if it cannot do so, it shall refer the matter to:

(e) All complaints other than Employee grievances shall be presented to the Joint Committee and/or the Joint Board and disposed of as indicated herein.
(f) The Employee may state his/her grievance in writing at any stage of the proceedings.

(g) A report in writing shall be made by the Job Steward, Shop Steward, the Joint Committee and the Joint Board in each case acted upon by them.

(h) This grievance procedure shall not operate as a bar or precondition to suit by the Union or by one (1) or more trustees or participants in one (1) or more of the Funds for collection of contributions owed such Funds by any Employer.

SECTION 2. ARBITRATION.

(a) Representation of the Complainant and Respondent. The Union as a complainant or respondent shall be represented at the hearing by an officer or representative of the Union authorized by its Secretary-Treasurer to act in such capacity, or by the business representative of the local union having jurisdiction over the geographical area where the incident giving rise to the demand to arbitrate occurred. An Association's Employer as a complainant or respondent, if a corporation, shall be represented at the hearing by an officer thereof, or, if a sole proprietorship, partnership or unincorporated business association, by a principal thereof. If a complainant or respondent is a member of an Employer association recognized by the Union, it may also be represented at the hearing by a duly authorized member of such Associations. A party has the right to be represented at the hearing by legal counsel.

(b) Hearing Procedures. The arbitration hearing shall be conducted by two (2) Chairpersons who shall be members of the Joint Trade Committee, one of whom shall be an Association's representative and the other, a Union representative. The grievance or dispute, proof of due service of same and any response thereto by the respondent will be presented at the inception of the hearing. The complainant may present witnesses and other evidence in support of the request, and the respondent may present witnesses in its defense. The respondent and complainant will both have the right of cross-examination. The Joint Trade Committee shall be the judge of the relevancy and materiality of the evidence offered, and conformity to the state or federal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. The Joint Trade Committee (and any subsequent arbitrators, i.e., the JTB or AAA, pursuant to this Article) shall also consider any alleged violations of the National Labor Relations Act and any statutory remedies, if any, with respect to any violation of the National Labor Relations Act.

(c) Nature of Hearings. Hearings shall be as informal as may be reasonable and shall be conducted in the manner considered appropriate by the Chairpersons. The Chairpersons shall have the authority to vary the procedures as they deem necessary in order to insure that each party is afforded a full and fair opportunity to present any and all material and relevant evidence.

(d) Corroborating Witness. Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Union must produce a corroborating witness (i.e., an individual with firsthand knowledge of the violation) to the Joint Trade Committee in order to meet its burden of proof at a hearing. There shall be no retaliation against any member who provides witness testimony to the Joint Trade Committee.

(e) Minutes of Proceedings. Any party desiring a stenographic record shall make arrangements directly with a stenographer and shall notify the other party and the Joint Trade Committee at least three (3) days in advance of the scheduled hearing date. The requesting party shall pay the cost of the transcript and a copy of same must be made available at no cost to the Joint Trade Committee upon the conclusion of the hearing.

(f) Postponements. Except as provided in Article X, Section 1(c)(i), the Joint Trade Committee may, for good cause shown, postpone any hearing upon the request of a party or upon the Joint Trade Committee’s own initiative, and shall also grant such postponement when all of the parties agree.

(g) Hearing in the Absence of a Party. The hearing may proceed in the absence of a party or representative who, after due notice, fails to appear or fails to obtain a postponement. A decision and award of the Joint Trade Committee or Joint Trade Board shall not be made solely on the default of a party. The Joint Trade Committee shall require the party who is present to submit such evidence as may be required for the making of a decision.

(h) Interpretation and Application of Procedures, Rules and Regulations. The Joint Trade Committee and Joint Trade Board shall interpret and apply the above procedures, rules and regulations insofar as they relate to the power and duties of the Joint Trade Committee and the Joint Trade Board, respectively. If an unresolvable difference arises between the Union and Associations’ representatives on the Joint Trade Committee concerning the meaning or application of these procedures, rules and regulations, it shall be resolved and decided by the Joint Trade Board.

SECTION 3. ARBITRATION AWARDS.

(a) The Joint Trade Committee will, no later than thirty (30) days after the close of the hearing, adjust or dispose of the grievance or dispute by rendering an award which may include the imposition of fines and/or penalties, and any statutory remedies available under the National Labor Relations Act. The fines or penalties which may be imposed by the Joint Trade Committee are set forth in the schedule of standardized fines which are made a part of this Article as Section 6. If a demand for arbitration seeks the recovery of wages and/or benefits, the calculation of those wages and benefits shall be presented and determined at the hearing and the total amounts owed shall be reflected in the award.

(b) In the event the Joint Trade Committee fails to render an award within the time provided in the preceding sub-section (a) or a decision cannot be made due to deadlock of the Joint Trade Committee, the Joint Trade Committee shall submit the grievance or dispute to the Joint Trade Board, and the Joint Trade Board shall render an award. The failure of the members of the Joint Trade Board to be present at the arbitration hearing before the Joint Trade Committee shall not preclude the issuance of an award by the Joint Trade Board.

(c) The awards of the Joint Trade Committee and/or the Joint Trade Board, including an award of fines or penalties, shall be final and binding upon the complainant and respondent and all interested parties, and judgment may be entered upon the award in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

SECTION 4. FINES AND PENALTIES.

(a) All fines and penalties awarded by the Joint Trade Committee and/or the Joint Trade Board, less the reasonable administrative cost and expenses actually incurred, shall be used to defray the costs of District Council No. 9’s enforcement of Joint Trade Committee awards, to advance the industry, to sponsor educational programs for the members in good standing of the Union and their children, to aid and assist in the establishment of programs to increase business activity within the industry and develop and maintain maximum job opportunities for those Union members.

(b) When a Joint Trade Committee or the Joint Trade Board finds that an Associations’ Employer is guilty of violating the Trade Agreement, the Joint Trade Committee or the Joint Trade Board may, at its discretion, authorize the Union to designate up to fifty percent (50%) of the JOURNEYPERSONS in the employ of such Associations Employer for a period not exceeding six (6) months, provided that, with respect to violations of Article IV, the remedies set forth in Article IV, Section 1(d) shall be applicable.

SECTION 5. PROTECTION OF COMPLAINANTS.

If his/her right to any such readjustment is proven satisfactorily, the Trustees shall remit the assessment of the excess contributions. If, after an audit, and a final assessment of further contributions due, the Employer fails, within ten (10) days after written notice thereof given by the Trustees, to request in writing a hearing before them as provided above to protest the assessment and to seek a readjustment of contributions, the Employer shall be deemed conclusively to have consented thereto, with no further recourse.
