

4 Things Contractors Need to Know this Week

- COVID-19 Vaccine Reactions and Workers Comp - FCA legal counsel provides information on how an adverse reaction to the COVID-19 vaccine could impact a workers comp claim. Click here for more.
- PPP Program Updates - The White House announced updates to the PPP program, including an exclusive application window for businesses with 20 employees or less (from 2/24-3/10/21). Learn more here. The second round of PPP loans is available through March 31.
- 3 Practical Steps to Effective Quality Control Inspections - FCA's quality partner provides steps to help contractors' quality control inspections go smoothly and help keep your team - and your stakeholders - happy. Click here for more.
- Occupational Health Risks: Drywall - Ontario's Infrastructure Health & Safety Association released an informational booklet on occupational health hazards encountered by drywall finishers. This booklet can be provided to employees to increase awareness of health hazards associated with their work as well as provide prevention tips.