

6 Things Contractors Need to Know this Week

- Contractor Resources from Leading Manufacturers and Suppliers - FCA's industry partners are working to ensure signatory contractors get the resources they need to provide a quality end product. Click here for resources from FCA's industry partners.
- Ontario Helping Employers Train More Apprentices - The Ontario Government has announced it is investing \$20 million to help small businesses jointly sponsor and train apprentices through the new Group Sponsorship Grant program, increasing the number of people training and working in the skilled trades.
- OSHA Guidance on COVID-19 Workplace Concerns - The latest OSHA COVID-19 workplace guidance provides employees additional means to ensure confidence at the workplace. Learn more here.
- COVID-19 Paid Leave - Mandatory COVID-19 paid leave expired on Dec. 31, 2020, but the tax credit for those choosing to provide such leave is still available through March 31. Click here for more details concerning paid leave.
- International Leadership Council Coming this Fall - The 2021 FCA International Leadership Council has been postponed to this fall. Click here to keep up with the latest FCA event updates.
- IHSA Guidance on Handling and Receiving Packages - If you handle or receive any packages in your workplace, the Infrastructure Health and Safety Association (IHSA) released guidance on COVID-19 precautions to follow.